

BIRD field guide

Orange-footed Scrubfowl Megapodius reinwardt

When to look: Often active at night. Breeds July - March

May have a blue tinted neck

Size: 40 - 50 cm tall

Red beak, legs and feet

Similar species:

Looks similar to a Dusky Moorhen or purple swamphen however does not have the blue/pink feathers all over and can be distinguished by the black crest on its head. Small downwards pointing tail

Image courtesy of Flickr user Geoff Whalan 2013

the start

climatewatch.org.au