

www.climatewatch.org.au | www.earthwatch.org.au

Create a ClimateWatch trail form

Trail location
This will be the name of the your trail on the ClimateWatch Site)
Organisation and members	Organisation information:
(Members of the organisation (that have a ClimateWatch account) can be granted exclusive access to the trail's activity page where record of sightings and other information can be viewed)
,
	Mambara assounts (Full name and amail address that is Members accounts (Full name and email address that is associated with each members' ClimateWatch account) Overanization and site information Organisation and site information Please provide a short introduction to your organisation and site here. This will be included on the trail page for public/private viewing. Please visit climatewatch.org.au/trails for examples
Name of contact person
Contact email address
Contact phone number
Local Expert
Expert's Role
Expert's phone number Expert's email address
•
Check one Private Trail ☐ Public Tra	nil 🗆

Location List

These landmarks will be pin-pointed on the trail map and should refer mainly to static species like plants or points of interest eg. watering hole

GPS (Latitude, Longitude)	Location Name (include the species you expect to see)

Related Species List (Common name, Scientific Names)
Include the ClimateWatch species that may be encountered along the trail

Submit this form, a photo and map of your location (with GPS sites marked), and organisation logo to:

Nadiah Roslan

ClimateWatch Program Manager, Earthwatch

climatewatch@earthwatch.org.au