

Cowslip Orchid

Caladenia flava

When to look:

Leaf and flowerstalk appear between July to December, flowering occurs in spring

Bright yellow flowers which often have crimson spots

Perennial herb, grows 5-30 cm in height

Broad, hairy basal leaf up to 25 cm in length

Similar species:

There are no orchid species that closely resemble the Cowslip Orchid.

Flowers are 30-40 mm in diameter

Images courtesy of William Archer (flower) and Rich Weatherill (full plant)